

Connexion President Wins Distinguished Service Award

The National Association of Electrical Distributors honors Buffalo Grove, Illinois based Connexion President, David Rosenstein with their Distinguished Service Award.

Buffalo Grove, IL (PRWEB) May 03, 2014 -- Connexion, a leading provider of electrical and energy business solutions, announces that their President, David Rosenstein, was honored with the National Association of Electrical Distributor's Distinguished Service Award. This award recognizes outstanding service to both the NAED and the electrical industry. The honors ceremony, Monday, April 28th followed NAED's 3-day National conference at the San Francisco Marriott Marquis hotel.

Commenting on winning one of two Distinguished Service Awards, Rosenstein said, "Over the last few years, I've worked with a lot of exceptional people through NAED who provided outstanding information and guidance on areas of the industry that need support." He continued, "This award is about the people around us; we share this honor with the (NAED) team."

Rosenstein, a third generation, 30 year industry veteran, is the President and CEO of Buffalo Grove, Illinois-based Connexion. Since launching the business in 2008, the company has grown from just three employees to over seventy employees. He currently serves on both Boards of NAED and the Industry Data Exchange Association (IDEA).

Steve Abrams, Rosenstein's long time business partner and Connexion COO remarks, "Not only does this award reflect accurately on David's character and leadership, it also exemplifies our Connexion core values of being accessible, creative, flexible and responsive. I'm happy for David and proud of the organization we have built reflecting these values."
