

Madam,
Sir,

We wish to inform you that effective September 15, 2019, a 4.75% increase will apply to all LumenTruss™ products, with the exception of power supplies (drivers) and LED light sources.

These changes reflect the rate adjustments we have experienced since the beginning of the year, such as inflation, and higher raw material prices and transportation costs.

As a leader in LED linear lighting in North America, we always try to keep costs down to a minimum in order to offer the best quality/price ratio to our customers. Despite our efforts, we must adapt to the market in order to remain competitive and efficient. We will send you a new price list shortly.

While thanking you in advance for your understanding and trust, allow me to express my best regards.
